REORGANIZATION OF THE SAN CARLOS COMMUNITY CLUB

Among the many which are following the rapid succession, last Thursday night the 23rd, was another epoch event in the rapid progress of San Carlos, the city of garden homes down the peninsula. At the regular meeting of the chamber of commerce it was decided that as the San Carlos Community Club had accomplished the purpose for which it was organized that it should be merged with the chamber of commerce in order to prevent any division of efforts or any scattering of activities. In the re-organization Asa E. Hull was unanimously elected president; Jno. E. Cowgill, secretary-manager; Clarence E. Haydock, first vice-president; F. W. Otte, second vice-president; H. Schomer, third vice-president and Jno. V. Clark, treasurer. Owing to the fact that a number of representative citizens were unable to be present on account of business engagements the re-organization of the board of directors was deferred to an adpourned meeting to be held in the assembly hall next Thursday evening, July 1.

It is very probable that such representative men as Jno. A. Boyd, Karl A. Winter, Dr. Jno. G. Null, Attorney Chas. B. Marvin, School Trustee Lloyd C. Zook and Fred T. Odgers, along with Harry W. Mahany, Walter T. Varney of the aviation field and Chas. P. Kern will accept places on the board of directors.

With the re-opening of the San Carlos Aviation Field which is to be developed into one of the largest institutions of its kind in the west, with two new business establishments in progress of construction and others in prospect manager Cowgill anticipates a big amount of new material from which to augment the membership of the chamber of commerce during the coming fiscal year.

After Fred H. Drake of the San Carlos Land company, who represents San Carlos at the meeting of representatives of the chamber of commerce of the peninsula at Menlo Park last Tuesday night, had thoroughly explained the purpose of the organization of the several chambers of commerce and other civic bodies down the peninsula, is, that of developing and bringing about any improvements that gives promise of benefit to this section, particularly that of electrifying and bringing about better transportation facilities down the peninsulaffi the immediate construction of the parallel highway on the east side of the Southern Pacific tracks, the broadening of the present state highway, extension and improvement of laterals and the building of the Dumbarton bridge, the proposition for the San Carlos chamber of commerce to co-operate and get in behind the movement was unanimously and enthusiastically adopted and the dresident and manager, Hull and Cowgill were directed to attend the executive meeting to be held at Redwood City on Friday evening, July 1st to poin with and assist in perfecting the feredation of the several peninsula organizations and assure the members of our hearty co-öperation along the lines indicated.

The alumni association of Sequoia High School held a banquet at the Saddle Rock restaurant on Thursday evening. Many of the students of the early classes of the institution were present. All had a joyous time in speech, song and recounting the reminiscences of the early days of the school. Nearly every member of the faculty was present, including the new principal, A. C. Argo.

Comte O'Connell was toastmaster. Among those making uddresses were, S. P. McCrea, Judge Griffin, Lee T. Ross, A. C. Argo, Stanley Smith, Miss Jessie Smith and Neal McGettigan president of the senior class.

Miss Louise Fitzpatrick had charge of the affair and so well did she do her work that she was showered with congratulations by the members of the alumni.

There were 67 persons seated at the festive board.

ANOTHER CHAIN IN THE LINK OF THE BANK O FITALY

In a sweeping authorization from the State Superintendent of Banks, Charles F. Stern, in what was probably his last official act in that high office, premission was granted to the Bank of Italy to convert and operate as branches of that institution, the several affiliated banks owned by the Stockholders uxiliary Corporation.

The banks involved in this conversion to the Bank of Italy are:

First National Bank of Centerville.
First National Bank of Hayward.
First National Bank of Los Banos.
First National Bank of King City.
First National Bank of Lompoc.
Citizens Bank of Paso Robels.

These institutions are all well known and long established in their respective communities and have been operating as affiliations of the Bank of Italy through their ownership by the Stockholders Auxiliary Corporation, which in turn is controlled by stockholders of the Bank of Italy.

Deposits aggregating six million dollars are involved in this merger representing one of the largest financial conversions in the history of the Bank of Italy. The addition of these banks means that the Bank of Italy will now maintain thirty-four branches in twenty-seven different California cities.

In making public the news of this authorization, A. P. Giannini, president of the Bank of Italy, said that the present officers and directors of the respective banks will continue their present duties and be elected members of the Bank of Italy Advisory Boards. "It is not feit that a change is necessary in any of the organizations now being converted, and moreover the excellent progress the several institutions have made is, in a large measure, directly traceable to the sincerity with which the local officers have discharged their duties," said Mr. Giannini.

During the present year authorization has been given to the Bank of Italy to establish eleven additional branches in California, including banks at Sunnyvale, Visalia, Centerville, Hayward, Los Banos, King City, Lompoc, Paso Robels, the new head office in San Francisco, as well as the Mission and Polk Street branches.

DEVELOPMENTS OPEN IN SAN MATEO COUNTYOIL

Definite development of the shallow oil field in the peninsula below Halfmoon Bay, will begin within the next month, according to an official statement of the Peninsula Oil Company. This company has secured the lease of a 2000-acre tract that extends from the Tunitas creek to the Great Highway, containing several oil wells.

This district was a producer in the 80's, oil fro mone of these old wells being hauled to San Francisco and used in the old Baldwin Hotel. With the decline in the price of oil this district was neglected and recently was reopened on account of the high gravity of the oil.

These wells are small producers of from five to thirty barrels but the cost of drilling compensates this as the pool is opened at about 600 feet. The oil is a paraffine base and tests better than 60 per cent.

There are six wells on the tract that have been small producers and the Peninsula Company intends to reclean these and put them on the pumps before instituting a drilling campaign. At present there are two wells on the pump, which deliver from three to five barrels a day.

TO THE CLASS OF 1921

President Harding's commencement day address to the postgraduates of the American University, Washington, D. C., was directed to the nation's class of 1921. "It is one of the finest speeches the President has yet rendered, and should therefeore receive the widest publicity.

"We are at the height of the annual commencement season," said the President, "when thousands of students go out from institutions all over the land and take up the tasks for which their years of study have been preparing them. I wish I could impress the young men and women of every graduating class this year with my own acute conviction regarding the obligation of service that is placed upon them. They have been favored with the privilege of special equipment and preparation such as is vouchsafed to an all too small proportion of the people. They will not prove themselves worthy of their peculiar good fortune or of their special responsibilities unless they regard it as a trust to be held for the good of the whole community."

The President admonished the nation's graduates not to believe they knew it all with the possession of their diploma. "I have ofter thought that if I knew as much now as I thought I did on the day I graduated, I would make the finest president this country ever had." The entire address is an appeal to student graduates to make service to humanity their chief aim in life. "The world and its experiences constitute the greater university in which all you have yet to complete, so far as is humanly possible, your education," said he, "I pray you to go out to it without too much thought of personal rewards, of individual gains; and yet, not to thrust these considerations entirely aside. Be generous, but do not dissipate your capital of knowledge and ability in aimless, useless generosities. Hold true to those ideals which your government and its institutions represent. We Americans will best help mankind at large if we most earnestly sustain men immediately about us." Again he emphasizes this call to service by saying: "We look to this month's graduating classes to provide far more than their numerical share of leaders for the nation in a future not far ahead. You will play your parts in a world in many ways unlike any that former generations of your colleagues could have anticipated. I would feel that I had performed well the part that has providentially fallen to me if I could impress upon every one who goes out this year with a diploma the thought that it is not a certificate of right to special favor and profit in the world, but rather a commission of service. Men all about you will need the best you can give them."

Closely intertwined with this thought of service to humanity was his exhortation to the student graduates to have faith in our country and its ideals. "Much that has been esteemed elemental has been swept aside," he declared. "Almost nothing rmains that we may safely think of as sacred, as secure from the attacks of the iconoclasts. It is a time in which men search their souls and assay their convictions, in which they examine the very fundamentals of institutions immorially accepted, in which no tradition may be held immune from assaults of the skeptic and the doubter. Nothing remains with us that it not queried. Therefore we need for the leadership of the coming generation an openminded willingness to recognize the claim of the doubter, the innovator, the experimenter, the would-be constructionist. But while we must give these adventurous ones their full chance, we must sedulously guard against the spirit of mere cynicism, the disposition to condemn all things as they are because they are not perfect, the tendency to tear down before any plan of reconstruction has been prepared."

ELIMINATES CANDIDATES

Jonathan B. Dodge has been appointed state superintendent of banks John S. Chambers, state controller, probably will soon become connected with the proposed Sacramento branch of the Bank of Italy.

Thus the political outlook is completely changed and Governor Stephens whom everyone believes desires to succeed himself, apparently is rid of two strong opponents.

But there are others. State Treasurer Friend W. Richardson frequently has been mentioned as a governorship possibility and with the disappearance of these two leaders, Richardson come up to the front rank more prominently than ever.

With both senators from the north, the south will insist on a southern governor. Dodge was being groomed for this purpose until the fine Italian hand of Governor Stephens or one of his advisors intervened. Richardson is from the south. He is popular throuhout the state and his conduct of the state treasurer's office proves his administrative capacity.—Sacramento Union.

THE SUPERVISORS APPROVE OF SAN FRANCISCO BRIDGE

The supervisors on Monday passed a resolution commending the proposed project of building a bridge across the bay at San Francisco but said nothing about the construction of a bridge across the bay at Dumbarton, a project which is vital to the peninsula. We have no concern about the San Francisco bridge for its construction would mean the depopulation of the peninsula while the building of the Dumbarton bridge would bring a vast travel from Fresno and the San Joaquin county up the peninsula to the city. The building of the latter is feasible and practicable while the other is simply visionary. It would appear to us that the county fathers should look out for the interests of their own county rather than that of San Francisco unless they favor annexation which we do not think they do. Supervisor MacBain was the only supervisor who opposed the resolution in the form it was presented to the board without mention of the southern bridge. The people of San Mateo county are determined to bridge the bay at Dumbarton and they should receive every encouragement from their officials. The construction of the upper bay bridge would detract from the residential section of the county while the construction of the southern bridge would be the means of building up the whole peninsula. It would bring thousands from the hot valleys of the south to make their homes here where the climate and invironments would be enjoyed by them. By all means let us all co-operate i nthis splendid project which means so much to this section and which is so vital to our interests.

WORK FOR THE ELECTRIFICATION OF THE S. P. TRACKS

The people of the peninsula are at last aroused to the fact that better and cheaper transportation is needed, that more roads are a necessity, and that the electrification of the Southern Pacific down the peninsula to San Jose is an absolute and pressing need which must be accomplished if this county wishes to secure the big population that is now going across the bay where better and cheaper transportation is enjoyed by the San Francisco commuter.

The residents of the county have awakened to this fact and are working in harmony to bring these things about. There will be no let up until they are accomplished. Instead of a population of 40,000 San Mateo county should have 150,000. It lies at the door of San Francisco, the great metropolis of the west, and with all its numerous natural advantages, should be the home of thousands.

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD ON RECOGNITION OF IRELAND

The Congressional Record of June 9 contains the following concerning the recognition of Ireland:

Recognition of Foreign Governments

Petition from citizens of California praying that the Republic of Ireland be recognized by this government.

Mr. Shortridge.—"Mr. President, I have here a great number of telegrams and a vast number of letters from citizens of California praying that the republic of Ireland be recognized by this Government. I wish to present them and ask that four of them, each of which is brief, be printed in the Record, and that the others be noted.

"There being no objection, the letters indicated were referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations and ordered to be printed in the Record, as follows:

"1348 Shattuck Avenue,
"Berkeley, Calif., April 16, 1921.
"Hon. Samuel M. Shortridge,
"Washington, D. C.

"I am charged by Congress to assure you that means will be found to establish your freedom in the fullest and amplest manner." (Benjamin Franklin to the People of Ireland, Oct. 4, 1778.)

"The time has arrived for the recognition of the foregoing pledge.
JOHN McDONALD."

"Oakland, Calif., May 25, 1921.
"Hon. Samuel M. Shortridge,
"United States Senate, Washington, D. C.

"Dear Sir: As a native-born American citizen, who contributed three sons, all I had, to our country's defense, one of whom, Sergt. G. C. Ahern, Company L, Three hundred and sixty-fourth Infantry, was killed at Argonne, as well as putting all the money I had into Liberty bonds, I feel I may say that I am an American of the genuine type, and that my earnest desire should have some weight in shaping the policy of our Government; therefore I wish to express myself and by proxy for my immediate family and numerous relatives and friends at their request, that you miss no opportunity to recognize the Irish republic as an independent nation and to protest in strongest terms the barbarous treatment by the British Government of the terrible outraged people of Ireland.

"As you know, we may find many precedents in our country's history for such procedure, to say nothing of the fact that we were led to believe by our President as well as by the British Government during the World War that we were fighting for the freedom of small nations. How long would we hesitate if the offender were some other than the British Government? Why can't we be consistent?

Respectfully,
D. J. AHERN,
"2010 Fifteenth Street.

"1323 Fifteenth Street,
"Santa Monica, Calif., March 12, 1921.
Hon. Samuel M. Shortridge,
"United States Senate, Washington, D. C.

"Dear Senator Shortridge: In the name of humanity, in the name of decency, in the name of liberty, and in the name of the sacred memory of our thousands of brave men and women who died for the sake of freedom I add my petition to that of every other justice-loving American citizen that you do all in your power to see that the Government of the United States recognize the republic of Ireland.

"Ireland is fighting a heroic fight for the freedom that we hold so dear and that we promised her, with all the rest of the small nations. We have kept faith with the other oppressed nations. Why not with Ireland, the most oppressed of all?

"We would be insulted if anyone insinuated that we are afraid of England. But if we are not, what are we waiting for? Ireland does not ask us to fight for her. All she asks is that we keep our word to the world, and if we do that we must recognize her right to freedom. She deserves and must have our support; and you, as a representative of the people, are in honor boundto reflect the will of the people and uphold the honor and sacred duty of our country.

"Very truly yours,
"ADELL W. FITZPATRICK.

San Francisco, May, 13, 1921.
"Hon. Samuel M. Shortridge.

"Dear Sir: The United States Government has given recognition and assistance to various European Governments lately. Why discriminate against the struggling govecnment of Ireland? The claim of Ireland is surely equal to that of any State in central Europe.

RICHARD POWER,
"752 Lisbon Street."

Mr. Shortridge also presented petitions, letters, and telegrams from about 2009 citizens of the State of California, praying that the republic of Ireland be recognized by the United States, which were referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, among the long list on the petition were a number of names from San Mateo county.

TWO WAYS OF FINANCING THE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES

There are two ways of "financing Europe." One is to lend hundreds of millions to European countries to be expended in any way they see fit. That is the course pursued by the former administration, and followed in a less degree by bankers and individuals who have absorbed issues of foreign bonds. The other plan is to lend money to exporters in this country to continue their business pending the time when their foreign debtors settle their bills. That is the proposal of the present Washington government, together with a variation by which money may be loaned abroad with the stipulation that it shall be spent in the American market.

Americans have grown tired of seeing their money used by Europeans to buy wheat in South American countries while there was a huge surplus in the United States. They also see no reason why money owed to the American Treasury should be loaned to another country with a proviso attached that it be expended in the country making the loan. Yet that is precisely what has taken place. American capital has been used abroad to build up commercial competition with our own merchants, or to construct navies and maintain armies that are potential enemies of the United States, and against which we have to provide by further expenditures for national defense.

It is the policy of President Harding to finance America first. The agricultural interests are crying aloud for financial relief, which it may be possible for the Federal Government to grant, either through the Federal Land Banks or otherwise. The frequent issues of industrial and railroad bonds shows the need in commercial lines for more capital. The government cannot give aid in those instances, but the bankers who have been underwriting the foreign loans floated in the United States ought to be sure that the power of the people to absorb those domestic issues at reasonable rates of interest is not impaired by the offerings of foreign securities bearing high rates.

America has discharged its full duty to Europe, both in money loans and spent blood, and it is now up to the national government and private bankers and capitalists to co-operate in putting the United States back on a sound financial basis. With the policy of deflation rapidly nearing completion, the real needs of agriculture, the railroads, and the industries are becoming more and more apparent, and it is easier to forecast what the financial needs of the future will be. Let all pull together to meet them, and the world, as well as the United States, will be the better for it.

COUNTY BOARD ADOPTS RESOLUTION TO PROTECT THE ROADS

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, June 20, 1921, at 10 a. m.

Supervisor MacBain addressed the board and asked permission to hire a steam shovel to aid him in carrying on the repair work on the La Honda road. He explained that the work to be done by the shovel would cost $1.00 per yard. The request of Supervisor MacBain was granted, on motion of Hickey, seconded by Mrs. Brown.

District Attorney Swart presented a draft of an ordinance amending Ordinances Nos. 307 and 309, governing and regulating the weights of loads that might be carried over the highways of the county. The amended ordinance, as read by the district attorney, provides a maximum weight of 600 pounds for each inch of width of tire, where rubber tires are used, and 400 pounds to the inch, where metal tires are used, the channel base of the wheel being taken as the basis. Provision was made in the ordinance to fix the limit of the total weight of the truck and the load carried, as well as the limit of the trailer, the amounts being left by the district attorney to be filled in by the board. There is a further provision which says the ordinance does not apply to stteam rollers and other equipment used in the construction and maintenance of the highways of the county.

Attorney J. E. McCurdy of San Mateo, representing produce growers and truck owners of the coastside, addressed the board in the matter and said the 600 pound tire limit would meet with the approval of the truck men and he suggested that the general maximum of truck load be fixed at nine tons, with the same limit for the trailer.

Attorney J. J. Bullock addressed the board and said he did not believe the load alowed to be carried on the trucks should be heavier than the road beds are able to stand. He said he had been informed by the county engineer that the present construction of th mountain roads in the county will not stand more than 500 pounds to the inch of tire width. He sai dthe trailers are more or less of a nuisance on the roads and he opposed allowing them the same limit as the trucks.

Attorney Bullock called attention to the fact that the roads are now being used to a great extent by non-residents and non-taxpayers of the county and he suggested the placing of a license tax upon the business of hauling over the roads of the county.

A petition signed by John Pitcher and 95 other persons, the greater number of whom are farmers and taxpayers of the coastside of the county, as explained by Attorney Bullock was read by Mrs. Nash, the clerk asking that the tax levy on the business of hauling in the county be made.

Supervisor MacBain addressed the board and said the proposed traffic ordinance must be given careful consideration by the supervisors. He favored a maximum weight of not more than 16,000 pounds, and trailers just half that amount, affirming that if more than that weight is allowed there will be nothing left of the majority of the roads in the county in a year's time.

County Engineer George A. Kneese stated that from on engineering stand point he did not believe that the La Honda and coastside roads were built to withstand a weight of 500 pounds to the inch of tire.

Following further discussion the board decided to continue the matter until Tuesday, June 28, when a special meeting will be held to take it up again.

County Tax Collector A. McSweeney appeared before the board and explained that on error had been made in the sale of a piece of property four years ago and he asked permission to make the necessary correction in the deed. The authority was granted, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey.

A communication from a widow in Belmont asking thta she be placed on the Widows' Pension list, was turned over to the Social Service Commission for investigation.

A communication from Lambert & Walter of Redwood City, soliciting a portion of the insurance on the new county hospital, was received and ordered filed.

On motion of Supervisor MacBain, seconded by Supervisor Brown, A. E. Montieth of Redwood City, was appointed a member of the County Board of Education, to take the place of S. P. McCrea, resigned.

On motion of Supervisor Brown, seconded by Supervisor Francis, Will J. Savage of Colma, was reappointed a member of the above board.

A communication was received from the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, asking the board to take steps to construct a highway through the northerly limits of the Town of South San Francisco to connect with what is commonly known as the "Boulevard" and then extend this road to connect with the Mission Road at Daly City. A request was also made in the communication that the board improve the Bay Shore road by widening and straightening the shoulders so as to eliminate some of the dangerous curves.

The communication was ordered filed on motion of Supervisor Hickey, seconded by Supervisor Brown, and Mrs. Nash, the clerk, was directed to write the organization and inform the members that the board has already taken steps to secure rights-of-way for the new parallel highway down the peninsula, on the east side of the Southern Pacific tracks.

A communication was received from Miss Florence Boggs, secretary of the Social Service Commission, recommending that the traveling expenses of two widows in destitute circumstances, now in the count, be paid to the homes of relatives, one in Arizona and the other in New Mexico. The recommendation was approved by the board, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey.

Superintendent of Schools Ray W. Cloud appeared before the board in regard to his request made at the last meeting that an automobile bo furnished by the county to the special instructor of music and drawing, this position having been provided by a recent enactment of the legislature.

On motion of Supervisor Brown, seconded by Supervisor Hickey, the request of the County Purchasing Agent Werder being instructed to secure figures on several makes of cars and submit them during the month of July.

County Surveyor George A. Kneese addressed the board relative to replacing the old Haynes car belonging to the county and used by his office. He explained that the car was in bad shape and dangerous to use and would not pay to repair. This matter was also referred to County Purchasing Agent Werder to obtain prices on new cars and also see what could be gotten for the old machine in turning it in.

A resolution officially ratifying the action of the board taken June 14, 1921, in awarding all the contracts for the new county hospital in accordance with the revised plans and specifications, and authorizing the chairman to execute the contracts, was adopted on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey, all the members voting "yes" on roll call.

Architect W. H. Toepke informed the board that all the contractors had filed their bonds and the same had been approved by the district attorney.

A LAUGH ON THE LEAGUE

It would be a joke to make the gods of Olympus laugh themselves into hysterics if the league of nations should be called upon and requested to pay for the damages inflicted by the Poles in Upper Silesia.

The Germania, a Berlin publication calls attention to the fact that under Article 88, annex 3, the interallied commission alone is responsible for peace and order in Upper Silesia. Therefore it alleges the responsibility for the murder, arson, pillage, terrorism, mine flooding, and damage to agriculture rests on the shoulders of the Allies and if they pass the buck to Warsaw, either Poland must be held responsible or the league of nations for its cowardly shirking of the Silesian question. Annex 3 of Article 88 prvides: "The commission will maintain order with the help of the troops which will be at its disposal, and, to the extent which it may deem necessary, by means of gendarmerie recruited among the inhabitants of the country." Evidently someone is responsible, for there has been no semblance of order in that vicinity since the plebiscite was taken which resulted favorably to Germany. But Germany should understand that most of the league's funds go for salaries and upkeep, and there is nothing available to pay damages.

Municipal Ownership of Public Utilities

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP of the public service industry is a thing as frequently proposed as means are suggested for communication with Mars. The great fault with plans suggested and tried is that they never work out quite as their proponents would lead us to expect. The machinery proves inadequate, and the costs, however coverently concealed and shifted, ultimately bring about the failure of the enterprise or result in debts that must be paid from other sources of revenue and the other source of revenue in government is increased taxes.

There is but one sufficient reason that could be offered why government should usurp the functions of private business and that is when it can give equal service at less cost. Experience has not shown that such a result can be expected. The invariable result of Government's entry into business has been an increase in the number of employees and decrease in efficiency; vacillating and uncertain policies under succeeding administrations; waste, extravagance and loss which only government with its taxing possibilities could long survive.

How you can measure tire value in 1921

"Any U. S. Tire is a universal full-money's worth."

OFTEN it's surprising the number of different tire views that come out in a chance talk at the curb or in the leisure of a friend's garage.

Almost every day you come across the man human enough to believe he can outguess the cut-price tag on "job-lots," "discontinued lines" and "surplus stocks."

His opposite is the hard-pan car owner who sticks year in and year out to a standard brand as the only -ational economy.

* * *

Many will remember the scarcity of U. S. Tires last year.

A hardship at the time, but a bene fit now. There are no U. S. Tires to be worked off—no accumulations—no forced selling of any U. S. brand—no shipping of tires from one part of the country to another to "find a market."

* * *

There are 92 U. S. Factory Branches. Each one gets its share of U. S. Tires. There is a broad, constant, even distribution of U. S. Tires always going on from these Branches to the dealer.

Buy a U. S. Tire anywhere—in a community of 500 people or even less—and you get a fresh, live tire of current production—with all the original service and mileage the factory put into it.

The owner of a medium or light-weight car stands on equal ground with every other car owner.

Any United States Tire is a universal full money's worth—backed up with a leadership policy of equal quality, buying convenience and price for everybody.

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

The Menlo Park Chamber of Commerce held another enthusiastic meeting last Tuesday evening and perfected its organization by the election of D. E. O'Keefe, vice-president, and Fred Nessler, treasurer. The big gathering was addressed by Supervisor Charles Cooley of Palo Alto. He pledged his support and influence to the two big projects of the chamber, to-wit: The constructing of the Dumbarton bridge and urging the electrification of the Southern Pacific tracks down the peninsula. Many other prominent business men of the College City and others addressed the meeting upon these live topics.

The bridge project is an old one and has been revived to give closer connection between the peninsula and the mainland on the Alameda County side. The proposed viaduct, with a draw in the center where it crosses the narrow channel of the bay, would connect these communities with Newark and provide a direct line between San Francisco and the great San Joaquin Valley. Fresno and other valley cities have long urged the construction of such a bridge.

It was pointed out that the cost of the structure would not be excessive, many such structures having been built in this state in recent years, either by the state of the counties.

One suggestion put forward is to have it a toll bridge paid for by private capital.

Ways and means of improving the peninsula commutation service were discussed and will be taken up with the outhern Pacific railroad.

A general mass meeting of boosters will be held here next Tuesday evening, with delegations coming from the various Chambers of Commerce from South San Francisco down to Monutain View.

At the Community diamond, the Foresters took Menlo into camp in the first session by a 5-2 score in a fast and well played game. The second game started off with Menlo right on the job, taking the lead early in the game. The Foresters went over into high, in the last stages, and came mighty near trimming the Menloites for the second session.

The entire bill contained plenty of thrills, several boneheads, three umpires, and a home run swat by Clothier of Menlo. A big crowd witnessed the games, and were as rabid and partisan and non-partisan and plain fan as one would wish to see. "Pity the poor umpire, has life is not a happy one." Not so anyone could observe.

A spirited game is to be played tomorrow afternoon between the Menlo team and the Native Sons' team of Palo Alto on the Community Center diamond. Bets are being made at odds of two to one on the local nine.

The Menlo Park fire department was represented this week by Captain F. E. Whittaker, at the silver jubilee of the San Francisco chapter of the National Fire Protective Association of which association Mr. Whittaker is a member. All the fire chiefs were present at a banquet given in honor of the occasion. Mr. Whittaker delivered a stirring address at the festive board.

The grammar school closed yesterday with appropriate exercises. Mr and Mrs. Bower and their daughter will spend their vacation in the Yosemite and at Lake Tahoe.

W. E. Orton of Menlo Park, J. J. Murray of Stanford Park, accompanied by Daniel Harrison Powel spent the end of the week at the San Mateo county terminal of the famous Sky Line Boulevard.

The B. B. dance in the Native Sons' hall this evening will be a big affair. Dancing will continue until 3 o'clock. One of the finest orchestras in San Francisco will furnish music for the dreamy waltz and quick two-step and the poultry farm dances. This will be a jumbo event. All you dancers come and enjoy the event of the season.

The Las Lomitas grammar school closed yesterday for the summer vacation with appropriate exercises. The pretty principal, Miss Reba Pearce, will not return next term. She is to be married to Mr. Holmes at Palo Alto on Tuesday, which place has been the home of the bride-to-be for some years. She has been principal of the school for the past two years.

A pretty wedding took place at the Church of the Nativity on Wednesday morning when Charles P. Partridge and Miss Ethel M. Cowperthwaite of Atherton were married at a nuptial mass by Father Jerome B. Hannigan, a former pastor of the Church of the Nativity. Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast took place at the beautiful home of the bride's uncle. R. E. Miller, managing director of the Owl Drug Company. Miss Cowperthwaite has been a member of the choir of the Church of the Nativity and is a singer of more than ordinary ability. She resides with her uncle at Atherton. Mr. Partridge was born and raised in Menlo Park and a sa youngster was an altar boy here. He is a son of the late P. M Partridge. The couple will spend their honeymoon in Northern California, after which they will return to make their home in Burlingame. Partridge i sthe San Francisco representative of the Belknap Addressing Machine Company and is well and favorably known in busines circles on the peninsula.

Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald has leased her ranch at Ravenswood for a period of six years t oM. Mederos, the well-known dairyman of that place. It consists of 75 acres. Mr. Mederos contemplates sewing alfalfa at once. He is to pipe the property for water and is going to erect a $6000 barn and put in a bottling works. The Altamont Dairy of Palo Alto has contracted to take all the milk Mederos can produce. The milk of this ranch and the adjoining 400 acres will be bottled there. Mrs. Fitzgerald vacates the premises on August first. She will take a house in San Francisco where she will reside permanently.

Miss Mary O'Dea and Miss Catherine O'Dea will spend a part of this month and the month of July in San Francisco having taken a house in the city for this period.

Dr. Whitewolf will give his famous lecture on the "Life and Habits of the Indian" in Gilroy for the benefit of the Episcopal church of that place on June 24. This lecture has been delivered in many parts of the country, depicts the life ot the redmen in all phases of his life. It is interesting and accurate as the doctor was at one time an Indian chief, and an aide to Sitting Bull, the famous chief.

Menlo Park as well as Palo Alto will have a daily Vacation Bible School this summer. The Menlo Park school will open on Monday morning, June 20, in the Presbyterian church, and will continue for five weeks. Classes will be held daily, except Saturday and Sunday, from 9 to 11:30 a. m.

All children of the community regardless of denominational affiliations, will be welcome.

On Wednesday evening, June 29th Menlo Parlor, N. D. G. W., will give a whist party in Native Sons' hall. Admission 25 cents.

On Monday evening the members of Menlo Parlor, N. D. G. W., surprised Miss Margaret Walsh with a miscellaneous shower. After the meeting she was escorted to the banquet hall and the center of the table stood a large basket beautifully decorated and overflowing with all kinds of useful and pretty gifts from the members of Menlo Parlor. The table was decorated with greens and pink carnations and the hall with colored streamers, green and yellow flowers, the color of the order. Music and songs were in order after all had partaken of the bountiful feast. Miss Walsh leaves Menlo Park with the best wishes of her sisters in Menlo Parlor for a happily wedded life.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Edsel B. Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, gives out the following statement:

"Another reduction has been made in the list price of all types of Ford cars and the Ford truck to take effect immediately. The list prices, F. O. B. Detroit, are now as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Touring Car | $415.00 |
| Runabout | $370.00 |
| Coupe | $695.00 |
| Sedan | $760.00 |
| Chassis | $345.00 |
| Truck Chassis | $490.00 |
| Tractor | $825.00 |

"The big reductions last fall were made in anticipation of low material costs which we are now getting the benefit of, and this fact together with increased manufacturing efficiency and the unprecedented demand for Ford cars, particularly during the past three months permitting maximum production, have made another price reduction possible immediately.

"Ford business for April and May, 1921 was greater by 56,633 cars and trucks than for the same two months in 1920, in fact the the demand has been even greater than the supply, so that our output has been limited, not by unfilled orders but by manufacturing facilities."
